When i think of Jim, i smile. His smile lit up a room and he was one of the most geniune, honest people i ever knew. He was humble and kind and treated all people like they were his family. He could get a little fiesty if he was pushed but always handled every situation in a loving manner. My heart breaks to think he is not here but I know where he is and that will be the comfort for all his loved ones. I will continue to pray for peace for the family through this difficult time.Love to all his family and friends. Terry Campbell
