As an alumnae of NHS (class of '73), I am saddened to hear that Mr. (Coach) Nollner is no longer with us. He taught Health at NHS, which was one of my best subjects. I believe that the Lord assigned him as my teacher, which lead me to a career in the health field. May the Lord give comfort and peace to his family.

Coach Nollner is a legend. I could never beat his teams at Whites Creek in my HS career but I respected him greatly. He was also my drivers ed teacher and his lovely wife Mary taught me and ended up teaching my younger brother. Love and respect to his family.

He was a coach in high school 20 years ago, and one of the greatest lessons Coach Nollner ever taught was about consent in my health and wellness class. He made us girls feel empowered with our 'no' and he tried his best to impart the power of that 'no' to the boys, which in a school like Whites Creek was important. I will never forget that moment when a teacher and coach made me feel like I, a dweeby little high school sophomore, had power over my own body. Thanks, Coach. RIP.
