I married Granny's Grandson, Rhett. We shared some good memories together. I will always remember her telling me when Rhett and I got married, "Macy, You need to always scratch his back when he wants you too. That's something he loves." I have followed her advice in that area. :) I'm thankful for the memories we shared. I know Rhett will miss knowing his grandma is here on earth. I am also thankful for her sweet potato recipe. It's Rhett's favorite that she would make during the holidays. I have followed her recipe now for many holiday events, to help Rhett have something from his memories of holidays spent with her. Rhett's name and his sibling's names were excluded from Granny's obituary so I will say this; Granny has a couple of living grandsons, a step grandson, a step grand daughter as well. She also is survived by quite a few great-grandsons, a few great-grand daughters, and 1 great-great-grandson. Granny also had one granddaughter, who passed away many years ago. I'm sure they are having a wonderful Heavenly Reunion. May God Bless those left behind who adored her and loved her.

Virginia was my grandmother's sister and my great-aunt; I had the pleasure of spending time with her when I was younger, and I've always cherished those times with her. She was a wonderful person, loving wife and mother, and loved her family deeply, and we all loved her too!
