One of my favorite memories of my Uncle Harry was going to a Studebaker Car show while I was visiting from Albuquerque, New Mexico when I was a kid. My Uncle's love of old cars rubbed off on me. I love old cars too. I will miss him. RIP Uncle Harry.

We had a great Christmas this year. He came to our house and the look on his face while the kids were opening gifts was priceless. He looked like he was soaking everything in and enjoying every moment. I have so many other memories.....one time we went to Indiana with him and he tried grilling steaks only to realize that the grill was not working....needless to say, I'm sure glad he liked his steaks rare as these were raw! 🤪 He did make THE BEST steaks! (When the grill was working)

My condolences to family and loved ones. Harry was character for sure. I have many memories since the first time I met him several years ago when he purchased the first of several Harley-Davidson's from me. He is definitely an unforgettable man. Not always the most subtle of men and you always knew where you stood with him. He was black and white and when he shook your hand, you knew he stood behind it. Prayers to you all, Niko Mollatiere
