Christine A Ray lit a candle in honor of Harry .

I met Harry when I was 17 years old and had started working at Fidelity Federal Savings and Loan Association. He was one of the kindest gentlemen I have ever known as well as a gentle man. We lost touch when he left to persue his own business. We met up again some 69 years later when we both resided at a senior high rise. He was a wonderful story teller. We enjoyed many evenings having dinner and watching tv. I am very fortunate to have had him as a friend. Not having a car any longer I wasn't able to visit him over the last few years. I have missed his wit, his smile, his laugh and his optimistic manner he shared with those around him. God bless you Harry. Rest well dear friend.
