I miss talking to her and being able to share things with her. We had so many things between us that no one else knew. I could text her one word and she would know whatever it was I was talking about, like a funny joke we had between us. She loved her daughters and I know they will forever love and miss her. Merry Christmas April.

April was one of my dearest friends in years passed. She was always so sweet and absolutely beautiful. I loved her dearly and hate it had been so long since we were last able to catch up. My heart is broken for her dear sweet family who has already been through so much. Sending my love.
