Emily, you are in my thoughts and prayers. I have always enjoyed seeing you all at the house during tax season and again at the festival. Katie cried when I told her that "Mr. Jim that guarded the castle" passed away. Feel free to reach out to me anytime.

Emily said that she was getting married to this guy named Jim when we were at Neelys Bend. She would always talk fondly about Jim and the boys. I remember seeing Jim at the Renaissance Festival two years ago. He looked like a gallant giant who was super sweet. I thought to myself, Emily has herself a keeper! He will be truly missed.

Jim was the type of man that you knew you'd like from your 1st conversation with him. I worked the festival for several years & always looked forward to chatting with him. We had many a conversation about everything. I'm so glad I got by last year & got to see him & Emily. Now my wife knew Jim on another level for 20 years. She worked the castle as did Jim & he would always come in to say hello & check on her. She's told me that her 1st day this year will be very hard on her with Jim not being there. I know she will have tissues on hand. We will miss him deeply. To his wife, son, & daughter, we are praying for all 3 of you in your loss! God Bless all of his entire family sorrow & grief at this very sad time in their lives. Jimmy & Doretha Jowers
