Henry and I were pretty close at one time. He was so easy to talk to and was very loving. Very trustworthy. I remember us singing and dancing in my living room at the loft. We had so much fun together and I truly loved him. He used to dog sit for me and he loved Nash so much. I moved and found his memorial card and wanted to add this photo in case his family can see it. Such a wonderful person! I will always think of him and miss him.

Henry was such an amazing person. We shared so many wonderful memories. Here are a few. He celebrated Thanksgiving with our friends and my parents one year. We had such a fun time. Henry brought a cake that he made. We laughed because we didn't expect Henry to bring a homemade item. The cake was absolutely delicious!!! Another memory is dancing salsa with Henry and taking hilarious photos in the photo booth. May your soul be at peace dear Henry. I love you. I miss you "Roger who". Love always Peg
