John Hudson Clark posted:

Billy, thanks for always being there to take care of Mary Sue, Joe and me when we were growing up. You were my big brother and the guy that I always looked up too. From influencing me to follow you in joining the Navy, to being my mentor in helping me get through some higher college mathematical classes, to paving the way for my career job entrance into the business world, you were my go-to guy and I will forever be grateful. Rest in peace, spend some time with Mama and I'll see you again in the not too distant future. I love you. John (P.S. - I still wish you had kept that 1931 Model A Ford Roadster Coupe with a rumble seat.)
