The days will be different without you in our midst. I'll miss seeing you, picking you up from work, laughing at stuff I'd tell you that happened at work, and our prayer times. But one day we will be back together I'll take care of Bubba, your husband, and my brother. We are looking forward to one day seeing you at our new home... heaven gets sweeter everyday .

Well lets see... I have known Sandra almost all my life I can remember when we were young staying up all night singing and dancing. All of us kids back in the day were always outside doing something jump rope, skating, playing ball, riding bikes, and setting around just telling jokes or even acting like we were in the movies. Then everyone grew up and went own with their own life, but Sandra became my sister in law (I think it was about 44 years ago) when her and my brother Danny married. We would always spend Christmas Eve together, the whole family. I haven't seen some of my family members in over 21 years, but I miss and love each and everyone of them everydayThank you Sandra for all those memoriesLove, Patty

Sister Sandra Stafford, I will always love you. I've always kept the memory of our conversation in 1994 about (sin) is only for a season and she prayed and helped me through a terrible time in my life. I thought, I was saved growing up in church along side her. In 2016, I was transferred to Dept. of Defense in Knoxville, TN and thought it was work as usual, but after arriving, my grandson was born and I was awakened. I began to get concerned about my soul and where I would spend eternity which led to conviction, repentance and then true salvation in the Holy Ghost. Jan 13, 2019. That Sunday morning, I made my way to an altar and truly was saved along with the thought of the conversation we had and God took all my sin and habits. The change in my life was a miracle. I stopped running that day. I'm ashamed by wasting my life and talent God gave me for the world until now. Immediately, After I was saved, I was transferred to the Dept. of Energy in Oak Ridge, TN. I love my new church and pastor, Daily reading God's word, Passing out tracks, witnessing, preaching, Singing for the Lord and serving him with gladness and above all with thankfulness, awaiting his return. Sister Stafford was definitely correct, Sin is just for a season and it will have you looking in the mirror at someone you want recognize. Sin when it is finished, bringeth forth death and no way to sugar coat it. Sin is a killer. Sin will take your health, money and will put a wall between you and God. Today, if your reading this, let her death and her life witness be the beginning of your transformation to or back to the Lord. I'm so glad he was longsuffering and merciful. Remember, God will only be merciful and put up with you for so long and its finished. We all die and if you die without the Lord Jesus Christ you will be lost in eternity. Hell is forever my dear friend, Jesus is coming soon, (Come home). I'm very grieved today with tears of sorrow, but I know without a doubt I will see her again. I love and pray for the entire family in this time. Let the thought of her in Heaven comfort all of you. Tim & Corie Gillihan
