I knew Nancy professionally and personally. I remember Nancy and Tobe's party at their fabulous house, as though it was yesterday. I take comfort in knowing she is with her beloved husband. Does anyone know her cause of death?

When visiting Aunt Delores, Nancy was there too and was being her usual bubbly self. She imitated someone and we all had a good laugh. Her bubble personality will live on in the family. She is wrapped in Tobe's arms forever.

I remember you as the sweetest, funniest, tiny little red head who I loved dearly. I have so many fond memories of spending summers with you and the other cousins and trying to stay out of trouble, especially that time I overturned Uncle Phil's Jeep! We had so much fun. I love you, precious cousin.

My Precious Nancelina, we had more fun than anyone. How we laughed, how we danced, how we sung, & you would play the piano for me! We travelled to far off Places and now you are in our Heavenly Home! Thank you for the laughter, the optimism & your bulldog tenacity! God broke the mold when HE made you. I'm so grateful for the wonderful times. It's not good-bye, it's see you soon! No more pain! No more sorrow! I can see you laughing, dancing, and full of JOY! Love enfolds you and you are free! Love forever and always, Jewelry...
