A precious lady whose home was always welcoming. I remember enjoying such good times with her in Punta Gorda, Helen, Highlands and Chattanooga. We would have long conversations about books we both really loved and exchange bags of them. We never ended a phone conversation without her asking, "when are you going to come see me". Along this pathway of life we were so blessed to have had Nancy and Bob as friends. Rita and John Carswell

Dinner and a glass of Pinot Gregio. She loved that program. She was so happy to get out of the Convid confinement of exactly 3 months, to dine at the Public House, followed by a visit to Glumpies ice Cream shop. It was a privilege to enjoy that evening reviewing over several fun events that had happened over her life. She was so happy to be out. What a great final memory of this feisty, fun, caring, loving lady. Bob now gets to have all the fun again!!!
