First I would like to give Thanks and Praises to our Lord and savior. 20 years ago I was just a chocolate girl who moved to the South from Monterey California, and became Best friends with Lindsey. The first time I met Mr. DW him and Mrs. Janelle welcomed me with big smiles and open arms. The more me and Lindsey became closer the more I just adored Momma and Daddy. I am an only child just like Lindsey. We are pretty similar besides shes vanilla and I'm the best mocha you will find lol. I have so many memories with Mr. DW we would laugh and I would sing as he played the guitar and not to mention eat. If you never had Mrs. Janelles cooking I feel sorry for you. 😊👍 Thank you Lindsey for sharing your Daddy with me. Lord knows we had some of the best times. He truly left a special mark in my life. Thank you Mr. DW for accepting me and loving me as your own. Wow a Yellow butterfly just landed on my shoulder🦋 Until we meet again Rest in power🌟🙏!PS: Love your Chocolate daughterKrishna🌟

I am Dale Waynes' first cousin on his dads side. Dale Wayne was a fun cousin. He came over to our house when we were kids. It was on Easter and I was hiding my eggs. When I went in to get my mother to come find the eggs apparently he was watching and collected them all. Mom could not find any and told me to check and hide them again. So I stood under a tree and was wondering what happened to my eggs when a shell hit me on the head and I looked up. There was Dale Wayne laughing and eating my eggs!! Lol.

I'm so very sorry for yalls loss. I know you will miss Dale Wayne, tremendously. If you wanted a smile on your face and/or a great laugh, go see Janelle and Dale Wayne. He had a song to sing and a story to tell. My favorite was about the state trooper. Rest easy, big guy! Continued prayers for his family and friends.
