Martha I will always remember you for being kind to me, and always asking how everybody else was. How much you loved your kids through the good times and the bad. And I will never forget on your last day how you took my hand and just squeezed it I know you were seeing angels it broke my heart to see that but now you can go be with Billy I miss you Martha I love you

Martha bell was not only my nanny but she was always there for me from the beginning of time. We lived with her until I was 11 years old. She'd wake us up and even take us to school. She was a feisty one too and told everyone what she thought without a filter. I'll miss you nanny more than you'll ever know. I love you.

Mama I will forever love and miss you. A piece of my heart left me the day God took you home. You said that I will miss your phone calls every morning and I do. I wish I could hear your voice one more time. The pain is so unreal without you. Tell Daddy and everyone I said hi and I love them too. Until we see each other again my heart will break everyday without you.
