Margaret was my mother-in-law, I wanted to wait a while before posting anything . I am not a very good speaker compared to my brother in law. So I wanted make sure I could think through what I wanted to say.Margaret and I had our good times and of course our bad times. I know at times she had a hard life. But I truly believe when Floyd came into her life she had a load lifted off of her shoulders. They had a particular way of showing their love.I think that that was normal for them. When they would come to visit us in Bartlett TN, my boys could always hear them coming even before they ever got into the neighborhood. We still laugh about that.Anyway I think that was how she shared her love with anyone.Before she passed I had a chance to tell her I loved her. She smiled a big smile (which makes me wonder if she knew who I was) Anyway she knew I love her.May she rest in peace and may the lord wrap his loving arms fully around her and welcome her into heaven where we will all be with all of our loved ones and live in the glory of God.

Last fall Donna and I went to see Margaret when she went to assisted living. I remember thinking how loved she was. Mark had brought over her bed from home, she had family pictures, a refrigerator with everything. I had gone for 18 years to places with my father and a lot of times they had no family. She was truly blessed. She was such a spunky strong lady. I will miss her. I look forward to the day we meet again in heaven. I know she is playing with her little Muffet right now. ❤️
