I have some fond memories of visiting with Aunt Viv in the past few years ❤️ (wish I had visited more often) 😊 I am glad she's at peace now, and hope she and our Mama are already catching up!! Thank you, Ken for sharing your Sweet Mama with me, too! I always loved when she told me family stories! She loved you dearly and always talked about how proud she was of you!!! I'll be praying for you and your immediate family in the days ahead, hoping that sweet memories of your Mama will flood your mind often, and that God will bring you peace. I always thought it was awesome that Aunt Viv wanted to keep her mind sharp!! Aunt Viv would sometimes let me share her pillow & we would look at family photos on my phone. She would always want to know about the extended family & asked lots of questions. She would tell me family stories & I loved those the best ❤️ Love always, Becky
