Tanksley, Melba, Sonja and Randy - I am so sorry for your loss! Tanksley and I were just talking about how good your mama's cornbread was - she said to add a little sugar, that was her secret to it being so good! (I think it was all the love she put in it!) I have so many memories from our childhood. I know you have such sorrow in your heart. May the grace of God ease your pain. My heart and my prayers are with you today. Margaret Haas
