Mr. Alan Michael Simonds

MAR 8, 1962 - OCT 7, 2020

Alan Michael Simonds died on October 7, 2020 in Nashville, TN due to complications related to Covid-19. He was born on March 8, 1962 in Ipswich, England.

He is survived by his wife Gordana Jakovljevic Simonds; Sons: Alexander and Nicholas Killian; Parents Roy and Marlenea Simonds; Siblings David (Cathy) Simonds, Sharon (Mark) Learned, Stephen (Fawn) Simonds. Many nieces and nephews and their children. Parents in law: Dragan Jakovljevic and Mara Tutus

Alan was preceded in death by his Mother-in-law: Elvira Sanchez Bietz and Sister-in-law: Frances Jakovljevic

In 2011 he met and married the love of his life and best friend, Gordana Jakovljevic Simonds. Alan instantly bonded with her sons, Alexander and Nicholas Killian and loved them as his own. Although their time together was too short, they made amazing memories traveling, hiking, camping and laughing.

For almost 40 years he worked as an automotive technician and considered his vocation a calling. Towards the end of his career he mentored student mechanics, one of his most rewarding experiences. Alan would often donate his time and resources to help those in need. Wherever he went, Alan was affectionately known as “the Adventist mechanic”.

Alan proudly served in the US Army for five years. He was a veteran of Desert Storm.

A deeply spiritual man, Alan had a burden to share his faith with others. He served as a Pathfinder Chaplain and was dedicated to ministering to young people. He was quick to offer a prayer and point you to his personal Savior, Jesus Christ. Alan yearned for the second coming of Jesus. It was his sincerest hope to be reunited with his loved ones on resurrection morning where all pain and suffering will cease for eternity.

I remember so much of my dad its hard to pick only one memory. I love and miss him so deeply I can't express in words only in emotions. Because of Alan I was able to know God in a wonderful way and heard sermons from one of the best pastors of the SDA religion Ron Halverson Jr and going to church to listen to dad sing the hymnal songs and when we would have communion and daddy would wash my feet. I miss his laugh and hearing him call me baby girl. I miss the truth I knew of him being there for me and how much I knew he loves me I dont feel the world is the same without Alan. I want my daddy back so much.

Hey there daddy, you know I left Jon many years ago, well 7 days before my 10 years clean, Jonathan's motorcycle wreck and hosp visit that put him on fentanyl, was the domino effect to his od, he was scheduled to go into treatment the 23rd. Yet passed away on the 19th of jan 2023. So his one last one really was his last one. Today the 13th of feb. Gavin and I picked up Jonathan's cremated remains and our boy Gavin became the man of the house with one action, He quickly stepped up and carried his father out to the car as Mary (Mulebach funeral care angel) gathered my emotions with grace and held me up as we walked side by side shoulders together and arms gripping as if she was already prepared for my legs to buckle from underneath me. With an Ernest heartfelt hug and a kind goodbye, Mary spoke of the man I have in Gavin and to draw near to one another in these times. I'll be having a celebration of life for you at his on his bday. I am doing it for the boys and me and sissy cause we were eccheemmm unable too , glitch in the computer I think.
