Dennis "Wade" Bryant was my Step-brother-in-law to my late wife Evelyn Thompson Schindler. Wade and I shared a passion for over-the-board chess and my fondest recollections are the hours we spent playing chess. It was unfortunate that my profession as an over-the-road trucker interfered with our play. I miss him dearly and hope that the chess table I gave him found a good home and use.

Dennis "Wade" Bryant was my step-brother-in-law to my late wife Evelyn Thompson Schindler . . . My fondest remeniscences of Wade was that we were both avid chess players and there were several afternoons that we played for hours. We fell out of touch mainly because of my being an Over-the-Road truck driver absent for three weeks out of the month. I miss him and I hope the chess table I gave him found a good home. Miss you, brother!
