Mom. I had so many questions that never got answered. I am sorry that we couldn't get together because of Covid and more importantly the differences that kept us apart. I had thought many a times to try and reach out to you again but I felt leaving well enough alone was good. Pop was a stronger man than myself to keep pushing you to do better by yourself and not give up. I only did a small fraction of what pop did and failed you and for that I am sorry! You loved to live life to the fullest in earlier yrs but you slid into home plate Thursday morning. Your arms outreached towards Pop, your Mom and Dad! I love you and hope you've forgive me for my wrongs to you as I have forgiven you. This sons love was always wanted by you way more than you ever knew or thought! 🌹🌷
