I met Mrs Quinnie when she came to my salon to get her pedicures, when she was in Florida every year. She was a very classy lady, and she always got the same color on her toes, bright orange! On one of her visits, I told her that my wedding anniversary was coming up. It just so happened that it was at a time that the Oakridge Boys were going to be in concert at the Seminole Casino! She insisted on taking me and my husband, paying our way, buying our dinner and arranging for us to meet them in person! We had a wonderful time and I will never forget it! And I will never forget Mrs Quinnie!

Oh Quinnie, so glad you didn't suffer as much as you could have! I knew you were telling me when last we saw each other. But, I didn't want to cry in front of you. So we talked about our usual stuff. God knows how much you're missed! As always, Neil and all your family and friends are in my prayers. I love you!
