Ally Kelly lit a candle in honor of Ricky.

My first experiences with Ricky were with him delivering to my Office Max store. He was always one of our kindest drivers. Then I became friends with Drea, and he and his family have always accepted me into their family, including to holiday celebrations. He will always be remembered as a loving person who was always ready to offer a smile. I am so heartbroken for his loss and for the whole family. I love you all and I am sending you lots of healing energy and love
