In 1979 she joined Federal Probation and Parole for the Middle District of Tennessee until her retirement in 1999. During her retirement she became a social justice advocate giving her time to programs like Backfield in Motion and the Just Faith Group.

I met Jacque several years ago when we both made covenant with the Sisters of Mercy and became Associates of the Sisters of Mercy. Jacque was such a delightful person. Her smile could warm someone's heart in a minute! She will be missed by many but she is now with all the saints who have gone before her and now will enjoy a new life in Christ. You will be missed, my friend. Sandra Smith, Mercy Associate

We served together with pride and dedication in the US Army, Jacque in the Reserve in Tennessee and me in the New Jersey Army National Guard. We met while in training at the Army's Command and General Staff College and became instant and long-time friends. We shared a devotion to Christ and to the Theotokos through our professional and military service-our life of Liturgy. God Bless LTC Mc Bride and May her Memory be Eternal.LTC (R) Joan Kakascik
