Robert, I have known you all my life and it saddened me to hear of your passing... I laid down my phone and said "it cant be." I know everyone is going to miss you. Until we meet up again. Rest in peace my friend.

In life we hit ruff patches. I've hit several. In one of those patches in my life Robert let my son who was 3 and the time and myself live on his couch for 7 months or so. If it wasn't for that time graciously given by him I wouldn't be where I am today. He fed us, took care of my son, and even listened to me cry. It allowed me to gain my footing and enabled me be the best dad possible. For that I am so grateful! Till we me again my friend... tell The FATHER I'm still not done being DAD.
