Edith Vilsaint

OCT 16, 2021

Edith Vilsaint, 67, beloved mother, wife and friend went home to be with the Lord on October 16, 2021. She was born in Bassin Bleu, Haiti to Edmond and Belicia Guillaume .

She will be dearly missed by her husband of 42 years, Dieudonne Vilsaint their children, Donny Vilsaint and Edwina Vilsaint as well as numerous extended family members and friends.

Edith was a dedicated member of Boulevard Seventh Day Adventist Church. Edith poured her heart and soul into her relationship with Christ , family and her work as a teacher's aide. Anyone who knew Edith was touched by her kindness, and generosity. She was always a source of positivity and assurance. The simplest pleasures in life brought great joy to her. Edith touched the lives of many and made it a point to make all those she encountered feel so important and special. She always showed up when it mattered and lended a helping hand.

She was predeceased by her parents Edmond and Belicia Guillaume; her brothers Hubert and Edner Guillamue.

Edith is survived by her husband, Dieudonne Vilsaint a son, Donny, a daughter Edwina, 4 sisters ,many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Spring Hill Funeral Home and Cemetery, 5110 Gallatin Pike in Nashville, Tennessee.

Leonard Lewis posted:

We send our passionate love and sympathy to the vilsaint family. Words cannot express our feeling. But in all things God is in controal, and we will understand someday. May the Lord be your comfort in this period of grief. When you need to talk to someone we are just a call away. Leonard Lewis and family.

Edith became a part of our family from the moment we met her. She always had a smile on her face and a kind word to share. She always reached out and never let go of our friendship. My heart is broken ; my friend is now gone but my memories of her will never be forgotten. Donnie, I'm praying for you during this painful time for you. -Lydia "Lilly" Tross-Terrell.
