The way she would call pawpaw "old man". Their banter back and forth always amused me. "Now Old Man you listen here..." The accent in her voice will always be burned in my memory. The way she would say "Danny Mac" and "I'll beat you till you bleed" when we were acting up. She lived a wonderful life and I am so happy she got to meet my son Daniel McIver IV before she passed. I loved her very much. Give the "OldMan" a hug from all of us.

Memories , so many to list.. Aunt Bonnie loved her family, adored life and was friend to everyone. She had a look, she would cock her head to the side, smile, and out came a witticism of hers. You never knew what to expect would come out of that little voice, but it always ended with a smile.. She had a family that loved her dearly, a son & daughter inlaw that were a blessing.. She will be terribly missed. Memories are all we have,..Memories of Aunt Bonnie will last forever and always end with a smile.. love you.. Brenda

My Aunt Bonnie was the love of my mother's life Illa Ruth King. Where you saw one the other followed. She was my idol growing up. She wore many hats in her lifetime. Someone you could look up to. I will dearly miss her and know her and mommy are together wearing their mink coats and diamond rings with no regrets. I will love and miss both of them. No more sorry and no more pain ❤️

Sweet Bonnie was the love of my Dad's life. My favorite memory was when we all met at Standing Stone State Park. She was in her glory with all of the grandchildren around. We loved her dearly and will miss her. I send this from all of the McIver's in Louisiana, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Florida, Mississippi and Montana. Give Dad a hug for me, love DeDe.
