Mike was a Christian in the true sense of the word. Always on track with The Lord. His life was a good example of what it means to be a Christian, in that he was always faithful, kind and friendly to all he met. He was a good husband, father and homemaker and I am pleased that I was able to know him.

I am sorry to hear of the passing of Mike, we worked together at L&N RR before he left to follow his real calling in life. He was always a caring coworker and a southern gentleman. My prayers to his family.
