My daddy... Daddy loved to Karaoke, cook hot wings, play cards, spend time with his family, ride motorcycles, build things, do construction and so much more. This year was the best year of my life with him. He taught me so many things. He took such great care of me when I had back surgery. He cleaned, cooked, was my Chauffeur, my dr, my pharmacist and so much more. We built the relationship we both wanted. We played cards, and watched so many movies. He wasn't perfect but HE WAS PERFECT TO ME. I'm forever grateful for the memories I have with him. #MISS YOU DADDY ❤️

My daddy belting Christian music in church, watching Nascar in between morning and night services, the moment I knew my dad was the proudest when I purchased my home, being with me when I delivered my 1st child, being with my coach daddy watching my baseball brother at ever baseball game, playing cards of course, when my dad joined me at my church, holding a bond through the Old Rugged Cross the song and the meaning. Me and my sisters and brothers including Kim and Timothy at po'folks. Working in a mansion my daddy built and me and my brother having to vacuum ALL that carpet. And a memory I will never forget is taking my dad to Graceland. The most emotional was playing the song the baby for my daddy right after my grandmother passed and him really letting go of his emotions. I love you Daddy so many more memories than those. R.I.P. I know I will see you again.
