I watched the service, it was wonderful, I shed much tears watching. But, it was not tears of sorrow, but of joy. Because, he was not only my early brother, but brother in Christ, knowing we will be united again in Heaven. Steve Housley

Jack always had a smile on his face and a big hug waiting for you. He was a very special part of our Sunday School class. The first to volunteer to help people whether it was helping someone move or finding needed furniture or items to give to someone starting out in their own. To giving time, food and conversation of Christ to those at Matthew 25. He was an inspiration and example to us all. Love you Jack and will miss you. 🙏
