Franklin Dominguez

APR 29, 1969 - DEC 31, 2021

Franklin Dominguez of Five Points, Tennessee, passed away on December 31, 2021. He was born in Cuba to the late Eduardo Dominguez and Margarita Vazquez, and he immigrated with his family to New York as an infant. The family eventually settled in Florida, where he caught the eye of a young Julie Paul in middle school. The two came together after some time apart, and have been inseparable since.

Affectionately known as “Franky D.,” he had a great love for life and those who surrounded him. He was a top athlete in his youth, and enjoyed various outdoor activities such as fishing and sightseeing around the great state of Tennessee. His greatest joy was his family, and he doted on his only son Justin until his untimely passing.

Franky was preceded in death by his father Eduardo and his son Justin. He is survived by his loving wife Julie; mother Margarita; sisters Margaret, Alicia, and Maria; and brother Alberto.

A private memorial service will be held by the family at River of Life Church in Estero, Florida on January 22, 2022 at 11 am.
