Love you so much Uncle Jack. You were the only uncle we had and you were always there for us and especially Mom when she needed it, especially after Daddy died. I remember weekends you and Aunt Joyce came and played cards with Mom & Dad and me and David played with Jack Jr. I'm pretty sure I got in trouble at least once or more for telling the others what cards you had in your hand not understanding the game and what those particular cards meant. lolYou were always patient and had the best hugs which consisted of some squeezing that I loved. You are going to be greatly missed so much, but your no longer suffering and I hope you are enjoying your time in heaven and being with all our family that have gone on and our precious Jesus. I love you more than you will ever know, you made a lasting impression on this little niece of yours.Prayers to Aunt Joyce, Jack Jr and all the family that loved you so much! ❤️

You were always my favorite Uncle and there will never be another like you. You could walk up behind me to this day and grab my shoulders and I knew it was you from your grip. You truly will be missed. You and mom and Aunt Lynn keep each other company.
