My fondest and most favorite memories of my Aunt are how much she loved holidays and how she had and outfit shoes and jewelry to match for each one. She also sent cards for not only Christmas but Easter, Fourth of July, Birthdays and anniversaries. She never missed a beat on the card sending. I sat with her for a short time and watching her soap operas with her was our daily gig. She will be missed by many but oh what a happy day in heaven where she is with my grandparents and Aunt Linda. It will be a reunion for the books.

What a beautiful and classy lady inside and out. She had such a servant's heart, loved the Lord, loved people and taught the rest of us how to do so. Oh how her smile could light up a room. Truly to know Vicki was to love her. She will be greatly missed.
