K

Kim B lit a candle in honor of Darrell.

Darrell was a young man who came up the hard way, with very little, but he was very intelligent and a hard worker, in his young life he purchased houses and made a great living, could have anything he wanted, He was loving, honest and always willing to help others. He was my cousin, but more like a brother, we all loved him very much and so proud of his achievements. We will never forget him, he will always be remembered and have a place in my heart. Geneva Ray & family.
