I'm Reba's cousin, Susie Marie Story Wilee, and I have so many fond memories of Reba. When I lived in Ethridge, she used to come visit us on Sunday, and I visited them on Woodland Street in Nashville. She will be missed.

Aunt Reba was a welcoming, hugging, smiling kind of aunt. I always felt loved around her. She reminded me a lot of my mother in that way, although it was her husband, Uncle Howard, who was mama's brother. She will be missed. Gwen (Underwood) Steele
