Me and aunt Kathy were always best buds when I was growing up. She loved me like her own and I was always so happy being with her. She had a junk room I'd play in and I always wanted everything she had. The first movie I remember seeing in a movie theater was with her, we saw Secret Garden. We'd sing along to loud music while cruising in the car; maybe that's where my love of that came from. She's always called me "her baby" and I always felt so special. There's not another one like her and she will be so missed.

When my brother Steve Sheppard was four, Kathy was his girlfriend. When I was born, Steve wanted to name me after her. Mother agreed, but named me Kathryn but told him I would go by Kathy. A special bond we had and she will be greatly missed. Kathy Sheppard Gillihan
