We lived on Beckwith Rd, not too far from Danny's. Whenever we needed a horse to keep our horse company, Danny would say, "just come and pick one out!", then he would trailer my choice over and let me keep him however long I needed. He was a wealth of equine knowledge, which he was always welcome to share. A soft spoken, sweet man who we will really miss and will always pray for.

Dannie worked with my mom at Post Locator at Fort Knox in the sixties. Mother "adopted" several of the guys she worked with and Gregory as we called him was one of them. We all spent many wonderful times together at the lake, fun times in Louisville, playing board games, etc. Gregory was so easy going and game for whatever we did. He went on vacation with my husband and I to New York. Gregory was a wonderful person. May he rest in peace. Condolences to his family.
