Charles was born on July 23, 1930, at home, 112 East Cedar Street, Goodlettsville, Tennessee, delivered by his own father, Dr. Sam J. Fentress. They married in 1958 and at his death they had celebrated 65 years of marriage. In 1969, he was promoted to personnel director at Cain-Sloan and to Vice President of Personnel. While at Cain-Sloan Charles continued his education at The Nashville School of Law and was admitted to the Tennessee Bar in 1969.

In 1975, he ran a successful campaign for Nashville Davidson County Metropolitan Council in the 34th district. He served in the council until 1999.

Sending love and sympathy to the Fentress family. Charlie was an important part of my young adult years in Nashville. During the week, I had the joy of teaching Karen then Beth at FRA and on Sunday mornings I was blessed to be in the young couples class that Charlie taught. What fine role models he and Juanita were to me and to all our class. I'm glad we got to have him on "this side" for 93 years. His absence on our side beckons all of us to step up in lives of service to community, civic groups and especially in our faith journey. I hope to make personal contact with you much loved Fentresses. Lucy O'Neal Majors

Charles interviewed me in the spring of 1963 at the Tennessee Tech Student Union. I told him I had a nine month deferment from the US Army and then I would serve three and a half years on active duty. He told me the Executive Training Program would be completed by the time I left and if both of us were satisfied this was a good fit I could return to Cain-Sloan to continue my career. I considered that a wonderful opportunity. This was typical of this man who left such a legacy of leadership at Cain-Sloan as well as many contributions to his church and the city of Nashville. I'll remember him with tremendous respect. Pat Quillen Cookeville, TN

Charlie was a treasured and dear friend. He interviewed me in my senior year at MTSU in 1964 and recommended me for the Executive Training program at Cain-Sloan. That led to a 22 year career there as a senior executive, working along side Charlie. We had lunch together often, played tennis as partners, and most of all, Charlie advised me on career, family, and giving back to the community. His love for Juanita and his daughters was obvious to all who knew him. Charlie will be remembered as "a good man."

Beth, I did not know your Dad but I do know that you loved him very much. He was a blessing to your community and your family. An interesting side note, our granddaughter graduated from Webb in Bell Buckle in 2018, and my uncle and one of my cousins graduated from the Webb school in Claremont, CA decades ago! Small world. My prayers are with you and your family.. hold your memories close ❤️ Love and prayers sent Stephanie Blansett Metro School Health Supervisor (retired)
