Cindy and Wendall were one of the first friends of my now husband Vince, that I had met. The year was 1976, Cindy even came to his graduation from McGavock High School in 1976. I was at her baby shower when she was expecting Bradley. We have been friends ever since. Fast forward 20 years, Vince and I had a son in 1991 who grew up and played the saxophone in the marching band. Imagine our surprise when our son, Mitch comes home and tells us his band leaders name is Chris Ward! Its a small world. We will miss getting together and watching movies and playing cards, usually Rook. We love you and will look after Wendall. Love, Doris
