Stephanie Michelle McEwen

APR 9, 1976 - APR 18, 2024

On April 18th, 2024, our beloved Mrs. Stephanie Michelle McEwen departed this world, leaving behind cherished memories and a legacy of love. She was a beacon of warmth, kindness, and unwavering devotion to her family.

Stephanie's heart overflowed with love for her family. As both a biological and adoptive mom, she embraced every child with open arms, nurturing them with boundless affection. Her home was a sanctuary of laughter, shared dreams, and countless bedtime stories. Stephanie's love knew no bounds; it transcended bloodlines and touched the hearts of all who knew her.

A wanderer at heart, Stephanie reveled in the beauty of this world. She cradled the sunsets in her palms and danced with the waves along Florida's sandy shores. The salty breeze whispered secrets to her, and she, in turn, shared them with her family. The mountains of Gatlinburg and Pigeon Forge held a special place in her heart. Stephanie led her loved ones through winding trails, their laughter echoing among ancient trees. She believed that nature was a canvas, and each moment spent there was a stroke of vibrant color.

Music was Stephanie's soul language. She swayed to the rhythm of life, her feet tracing invisible patterns on the kitchen floor as Tim McGraw's melodies enveloped her. The radio became her dance partner, and the songs became her solace. In those moments, Stephanie was free—a spirit unburdened by the weight of the world.

As we bid farewell to Stephanie, we remember her laughter, her fierce hugs, and the way her eyes sparkled when she spoke of her family. She leaves behind a legacy etched in love, a testament to the power of a mother's heart.

Stephanie is preceded in death by her father Marty Eugene Bradshaw, grandmother Dorothy Bradshaw, and maternal grandparents Robert B. Woods, Jr. and Audrey Jane Woods. Left to cherish her memory are her beloved husband Steven Wayne McEwen, Sr.; children Steven Wayne McEwen, Jr., Haley McEwen, Kaley Pate, Ariana Pate, and Christopher Austin (Tiffany);
