Steve worked for Metro Water for 38 years. He retired from Metro Water in 2017. He spent his time at home with family and his animals. He was an awesome provider, friend, father, grandfather and great grandfather. He loved his family more than anything. He will be missed but we will keep him in our memories forever and we will always remember that one song, one saying, one story that when you hear it you'll say "There's fatboy, or bigdaddy". However you remember him, just know he loves you and is looking down on us with a big grin on his face. He's with his family and best friends Clyde Smith, Bubba Hunter and Calvin Harris.

I remember my Daddy, Kenny Hall, and Steve ran together for many years. He was definitely a man of his word and I'll always remember his overalls. He was a good man and so is his family. RIP FATBOY
