Leo Adrani Alvarado

MAY 25, 2015 - MAY 31, 2024

We mourn the loss of Leo Adrani Alvarado, who passed away on May 31, 2024, in Ashland City, TN, surrounded by his loving family. Born on May 25, 2015, in Nashville, Tennessee, Leo's memory will forever be cherished by his family, friends, and all who knew him.

Leo was a technophile with a penchant for gaming. His favorite pastimes included playing iPhone and VR games, and he always appreciated receiving iPhone gift cards to support his gaming adventures. Among his beloved games were Bloon TD 6 and Plants vs. Zombies. Despite his initial shyness, Leo's playful and vibrant personality endeared him to those around him.

One of Leo's cherished memories was celebrating his and his twin brother's birthdays at waterparks in Pigeon Forge. His joyful spirit will forever resonate with those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him. Leo also had a unique connection with the youngest members of his family, finding special joy in holding and playing with babies.

Leo is survived by his parents, extended family members, and friends who held him dear. Although his time with us was brief, the happiness he brought into our lives will never fade. Those left behind to cherish his memory include his mother and stepfather, Tera Boyd and Mathew Boyd of Ashland City, TN; his father, Kenny Alvarado of Nashville, TN; his twin brother, Liam Alvarado; brothers Elijah Rogers and Cohen Boyd; sister Abby Boyd; and grandparents Crystal Davidson, Troy Rogers, Tonya Tomlinson, and Suyapa Nunez, along with great-grandparent Janet Williams. Friends and family will gather on Thursday, June 6, 2024, from 10 am until 2 pm. A celebration of Leo's life will commence at 2 PM at Spring Hill Funeral Home, with Chaplain Joel Reynolds officiating. Following the service, interment will take place at Historic Springhill Cemetery on Gallatin Road in Nashville, TN1. Our hearts go out

I had the joy of meeting Leo as a Kindergartener and again as a Third grader. He was quiet but his smile was bright. It was a pleasure to watch him learn and grow as his teacher.
