Evidently, I must have spoke with Sandy a day or so before his passing. He had called me and was searching for a "good wheel barrow without having to pay a fortune"; to knock out some yard or debris work on his property. Seems like he would accumulate the washed up debris and sticks into a burn pile and have a debris pile fire about once a year. He indicated that he was back on reduced Chemo treatment and wasn't feeling his best but said he was okay. I had texted him a few times later and ultimately got alarmed enough to do a Google search and discovered he had succumbed to his lung disease. He had undergone multiple lung procedures over the past 5 years and it had brought him down... but not out, until the end.

Smart, funny, fun-loving, honest, with a caring heart and wonderful sense of humor. Over 45 years of memories...he asked me to go with him all those years ago when he first looked at and purchased the "Doll House" on the beautiful lake he loved so much. He encouraged me to ask out the lady sitting next to us at a seminar 31 years ago...I did, and we've been together ever since. So many wonderful happy times. He never complained to me about his health situation or the treatments...faced it bravely and direct. So sorry he's gone, but relieved he no longer has to deal with the cancer. He will be missed by his family and his many, many friends. He often ended our conversations saying "love you like a brother"...same here my friend, same here.

I met Sandy in 1984 at a promotional products show. He had a "never ending" smile; and, was in constant motion. We started as a client/supplier relationship but became friends in a short period of time. Sandy was the "organizer" for going to dinner and/or going bar hopping at trade shows. He was a friend to everybody. I started calling him "World Famous" because EVERYBODY knew him. Lots of stories and lots of good times over last 40 years. Unique individual. You fought the good fight. my friend. Rest in peace May the peace and love of our Lord , Jesus Christ, be with Sandy and his family.

Sandy was a good man and a great friend. His smile was electric, but his sincerity and love towards His friends and family is what I will always remember. From the bluegrass country club days to working with him at Sanders and I love for the university of Tennessee. We're just a few of the things that connected us. His family and my family did so many fun things together over the summers in the 50s 60s and 70s. I shall miss you Dear friend, but the memories will last on. Rest in peace you deserve it after all the pain and suffering you endured these last years. Love to your Sweet and precious sisters and children. You leave a wonderful legacy. Owen
