Kevin Amick, a loving father, husband, and friend, passed away on July 18, 2024, surrounded by his family and friends. Born in Nashville, Tennessee, he was known for his faithful walk and his dedication to his family. He enjoyed playing golf and working in the yard. One of my many fond memories of Kevin, it was Ms. Pace's class, on the second floor. Kevin crawled out the window and was standing on the ledge looking in. About that time Ms. Pace walked in and panicked. She yelled for him to come back in and as she did Kevin ducked down quickly as though he had fallen, Ms. Pace gasped in horror the class was silent. Then up popped Kevin with that one-of-a-kind smile on his face and the room went crazy laughing uncontrollably. Ms. pace found no humor in her near heart attack moment and sent Mr. Amick to the office. RIP my friend I'll see you again one day

I was so sad when I heard that Kevin had passed away. We were good friends growing up together in the Gra-Mar neighborhood. I lived on Lemont Dr. right around the corner from Kevin. We went to Jackson Park Church and Maplewood High School together. Some of my favorite memories are hanging out with him at Mark Inman's house listening to the Temptations on their record player. Other good memories include when Kevin, Johnny Tanksley & I would go out on Johnny's dad's house boat on Old Hickory Lake. Also the times Kevin, Johnny & I would go swimming at the rock quarry by Maplewood H.S. and running around the neighborhood on Halloween night. What fun times in the '60's & '70's! What a good friend growing up! I'll always have fond memories of our younger days together. Johnny Hutson
