What a beautiful video! Buster was always so kind and gracious and I was truly blessed to call him my Uncle. Rest peacefully in the arms of Jesus, sweet Buster. We miss and love you! 😊😭

I will always remember Mr Buster wore the same cologne as my dad - when he was able to be at church I would give him a hug and tell him how wonderful he smelled.

I met Buster when I married Brett almost 40 years ago. "Grandpa" Buster was always so kind every time we would visit. I'll never forget the good times in the pool he so meticulously maintained and the many family get-togethers over the years, where he was always so welcoming as we took over his home and shattered his peaceful existence 😊. I thank God we were able to be with him this past Easter. The thing that will stick with me the most though, is his love for Jeanet. They simply couldn't walk by each other without a touch, a smile or a kind word. She is truly the love of his life and when he left this world, she was by his side and I know in my heart, that was exactly the way he wanted it to be. Rest peacefully Buster...I'll love you forever. ❤️
