Kurtis was a devoted husband, father, and grandfather, whose love and dedication to his family knew no bounds. He was a man who would move heaven and earth for those he cherished.

Kurtis was an amazing father who raised his two sons with unwavering love and commitment, always ensuring that family came first. He was a firm believer in maintaining a healthy work-life balance, a principle he lived by and instilled in his children.

A man of many interests, Kurtis had a passion for playing board games, a fascination with trains, and a deep appreciation for WWII and American history. His love for cats was well-known, and he found great joy in their companionship.
