Regina Ann Pendleton

FEB 19, 1959 - AUG 22, 2024

Regina Ann Pendleton, 65, of Clarksville, TN, entered the loving arms of the lord on Thursday afternoon August 22, 2024, at St. Thomas West, Nashville, TN.

Regina was born February 19, 1959, in Dickson, TN to Treva Sutton and William Baker.

Regina was preceded in death by her father William Baker, grandmother Odell Sutton, uncles Buford Baker, Roy Petty. Aunts Judy Petty, and Kathleen and a great granddaughter Olivia Horton.

Regina is survived by her husband Morris Pendleton, mother Treva Farris, brothers Greg Baker and Mike Baker. Sons William Martin and Jason Martin. Daughters Jessica Kirby and Jamie Fackender. Grandchildren Sabrie, Myrick, Braden, Cerena, Gabriel, Lauren, Tinsley, Jackson, Ayla, Ashton, Levi, and Oakley. Great grandchildren Alana, Maddox, and Lydia.

Regina worked over 35 years at the dry cleaners, she had many loyal customers and friends. She was always greeting you with "hey honey" and big warm hugs.

Regina was a very loving woman who truly had a heart of gold. She was always doing for others even if it meant she went without. You could always find her shopping, but never for herself. Yard sales on Saturdays and bargain shopping was her routine. "Don't steal my joy" she would always say if you tried to decline anything. She spent a lot of her time with family and really loved buying all the loud toys for the kids.

If she wasn't shopping you could find her in the kitchen cooking a delicious meal for all to enjoy, including 'Nanny's famous fudge pie' chicken and dumplings, Banana pudding and her sweet tea.

Regina is truly an angel who will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

I am a customer at the dry cleaners, I only found out today that Mrs Regina had passed on after I went to pick up my clothes. I have to say she was all so kind and sweet , she had an infectious laugh. I would drop in only for a few minutes to pick up my clothes then chat with her for a bit, today it made me think that it is so important to be kind to people , it makes a difference , just like Mrs Regina did. I will miss her smile, may she rest in peace.

I was a customer at the dry cleaners for quite a number of years, from the time Regina worked the shop at the corner of 21st and Elliston and later on White Bridge Road. She had learned to always expect me on Tuesdays, and would ask where I had been if I didn't show up. For that reason, I tried to never miss a Tuesday going to the cleaners to drop something off and pick something up. She and I would always cut up about something, usually about the ridiculous, exotic colors I would make up to describe the clothes I was leaving with her. "I don't have a key on the computer for that color," she might say. "When are they going to update that machine?", I might reply. Regina understood my daffy sense of humor, and played along with it. For that reason, I looked forward to my Tuesday stops at the dry cleaners, and went out of my way to go to the White Bridge Road shop after the previous shop's property was sold and redeveloped. I stood in stunned disbelief when I went to the cleaners expecting to carry on some more foolishness with her, and instead her obituary was on the door. It just won't be the same any more. Rest in peace, Regina, and my sincere sympathy and condolences are offered to her family and friends. With the end of her life, a part of ours is gone, too. David Hayes Prophater

Mrs. Regina was a woman that hugged your soul. It didn't matter who you were or how much time had passed, she was going to welcome you with a warmth unlike any other. You were family to her. I hope that the light she shared with so many can spread through them in this dark time. ❤️

I worked with Regina for close to 20 years and I can honestly say I NEVER saw her without that signature smile, even when she was down or at her lowest...she had that smile and was "looking up" for strength from above!!She faced her struggles head-on and with an undying love for her family... And she always had "it's gotta get better" attitude. I saw her struggle, do without herself, and literally give her all for her entire family. They ALWAYS came first and foremost with her.And she was LOYAL to all she loved.... and that was almost everyone she knew. I am very blessed to have had her in my life and will truly, truly miss her.

I am just so grieved and saddened to learn of Regina's passing. I knew Regina as a customer at the dry cleaners and I always looked forward to seeing her. As we were close in age, we would often chat about things we remembered growing up in our era. Sharing nostalgic memories with her was always special.Regina was one of the very sweetest souls I have ever met. She will be greatly missed by many. I will always remember her voice, her many cute facial expressions, her sweet smile and that twinkle in her eyes that was sometimes mischievous. 😊 I can only imagine how much you must all miss her. Our world has truly lost a sweet and precious light. May you be comforted by the memories and the love you shared; and may God's grace give you comfort and courage for the days ahead.So grateful to have been blessed to know her. 🙏❤️ Kathy Owen
