Linda C. Newbill

DEC 31, 1950 - SEP 19, 2024

Linda C. Newbill, 73, passed away peacefully on September 19, 2024, at Tristar Skyline Medical Center in Nashville, Tennessee. She was born December 31, 1950, in Daytona Beach, Florida to the late Robert and Jacqueline Castleman.

Those who have passed on before are brother, Steve Castleman, and sister Patsy Castleman Melton, sister-in-law, Pauline Castleman.

Those left behind to cherish her memory are sons, Jon (Marlena) Newbill and Josh Newbill, grandsons, Jonathan Dickens and Noah Stewart, brothers, Jerry Castleman and Mike Castleman, and beloved nieces and nephews.

Linda was a loving and wonderful mother with a secret fudge pie recipe that she has taken with her to place of rest. She loved cooking and baking for friends and family, and she passed that love to her two sons. She was especially known for her desserts and sweets.

She was a hard worker and considered her coworkers at the legal department of the State of Tennessee part of her extended family.

She was a loving selfless friend that would drop everything to help when her assistance was needed. Her loving nature was most evident in her lifelong care of God's creatures. From feeding squirrels and birds to her adoption of many cats and dogs through the years, she found simple joys in the care of these critters. In keeping with her love of animals, in lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to the Nashville Humane Society.

I am so sorry about Linda's passing and my deepest condolences to her family. I met Linda on my first day of work in the Department of Revenue's Legal Office back in 2005. We worked together for the next 17 years and I eventually became her her boss, but I always viewed her at heart as a cherished friend. It didn't matter how bad Linda might have been feeling, she always made birthday treats and "helped" our pets send us cards for birthdays and holidays. Linda is one of the best people I've ever known and I'm heartbroken to know that we won't share pictures of our kitties again.
