William Cooper Peacher

APR 16, 1947 - OCT 12, 2024

William Cooper Peacher, 77, of Madison, Tennessee, sadly passed away on October 12, 2024. He was born on April 16, 1947, in Nashville, Tennessee, to William Marion Peacher and Helen Cooper Peacher.

William was preceded in death by his parents, William Marion Peacher and Helen Cooper Peacher.

William is survived by his daughters, Sarah (Heath) Frederick, Melissa (Steven) Peacher, and Karla Peacher; grandchildren, Hayden, Lexi, Brooks, Carson, and Lawson; sister, Becky (Aubrey) Peacher Hall; and his four-legged friend, Tigger.

William truly was the biggest Vanderbilt fan. He would always support them and even got to see a game that made history. He had a joy for going out and sailing with his friend, Gordon. He was your typical dad by trying to make dad jokes and show you episodes about America's Got Talent, even if at the time, you don't understand why he enjoys them and wants to show them to you so much. He was slowly getting into cooking. The biggest part of his life was his family. He had a deep love for his daughters and grandchildren. He will truly be missed by all who knew and loved him.

Services will be held on Saturday, November 9th at 12 o'clock in the afternoon at City Road Chapel United Methodist Church in Madison. The address is 701 Gallatin Pike S, Madison, Tennessee, 37115. There will be snacks and refreshments to follow the service.

Claudia Helm Dowdell lit a candle in honor of William.

I knew him as Billy. We were neighbors on Fair Oaks Dr, in Madison, TN. His sister Becky & I were the same age & we enjoyed pestering Billy every chance we got. The Peacher family was always ever near & dear to me and my family. Billy will be missed by his family & those who knew him throughout the years. Rest in Peace!!

William (Bill) was in my class in high school (1965). A very friendly guy and always with a smile. Very quite. My prayers for all the family for peace and comfort.
