Edith Meriwether

JAN 16, 1929 - OCT 15, 2024

She was born in Glasgow, KY on January 16, 1929, to the late Zora Hazel Bowels and George Bruce Edwards. She lived on the family farm near Glasgow, KY until moving to Madison, TN in 1964. Once settled in Madison, she began working for Castner Knotts where she retired after 26 years. She loved cooking for her family, especially enjoying who would fight to get the first deviled egg and “Grandmommy cookie” at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Fudge pies were her specialty, too. She loved all things UT football and Peyton Manning and enjoyed watching college football games every Saturday with her husband, Toby.

Along with her parents, Edith was preceded in death by her husband, Fuller “Toby” Meriwether, son Arnold Bunch, daughter Gilda York, sister Lera Bishop and brothers Herbert, Owen, Clarence, Howard, Frealin, Candor and Roger.

She was survived by daughter Janice Letson, sister Cora Bradford, grandchildren Jamie Bunch, Mandy Wylie (John), Brandon Kiser (Leslee), Hubbell King, Trey York (Jaime), Lindsay York, and 7 great grandchildren.

Brenda posted:

Edith was my mother-in-law for 17 years and was perfection in that role. She was loving, kind, giving and gentle. Her door was always open for family and friends, and her arms were WIDE open for her little grandchildren. I'm grateful to have known her and blessed to have seen her in her final days. Brenda
