Elizabeth Ann Spann

JUL 15, 1961 - NOV 1, 2024

Elizabeth Ann Spann, 63, of Goodlettsville, Tennessee sadly passed away on Friday, November 1st. She was born July 15, 1961, in Nashville, to her mother, Betty Estes.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her brother, Billy "Skooter" Batey. She is survived by her mother, Betty Estes; her son, Terry Blade Jr.; her brother, Paul Johnson; and her nephews, Caleb and Cody Johnson.

Elizabeth was such a loving person, she found joy in even the smallest things. She loved the movie "Suicide Squad" and the show "Vampire Diaries", so much so that she once traveled to Covington, Georgia to visit the set of where the show was filmed. Traveling was a favorite hobby of hers, she was happy to travel wherever she could but simply loved Colorado. She had a green thumb for working outdoors, and even helped Terry out on the farm. She was easy-going, and caring to whomever she met, and made sure no one felt like a stranger. Elizabeth will truly be missed by all who knew and loved her, her friends, her family members, and her special niece, Ember Snow.
